

Corporates 101

Goal: Varies between different groups. It can either be a lesson, a tour around the mountain, private lesson, or networking opportunity for the group. Really depends on the group. You will be told the general plan ahead of time

If this is your first time working with corporates welcome!

3 Days out from the event you will receive an email with the details about what the Corporate will look like. In the email you will receive information about:

- ★ the location to meeting
- ★ the morning meeting time
- ★ Which group you'll have or which level you will be pre-assigned.
- ★ Who the level leads are if the group is large enough
- ★ the plan of the day
- ★ whether there is a location for lunch and if it's included or not for instructors
- ★ If the tip is organized by the group or left up to the participants
- ★ If there is a certain location, they need to be dropped off at

If there is a last-minute switch of schedules, I will do my best to get the email to you with as much notice as possible. The Scheduling Team will also be in touch.

Summary of your day:

- ★ Double check your schedule:

Check your schedule online: Your schedule changes quickly in privates, check often
